

THE PROGRAMME – two days of top-notch CPD

Day 1: 23rd September

VETERINARY	NURSING	WORKSHOPS
9-9.50am DAVID WILLIAMS Ophthalmic emergencies – 1: ulcers, uveitis and more... 10-05-10.55am GWEN COVEY-CRUMP Accept the challenge: strategies for effectively managing fearful cats and dogs during anaesthesia and the perioperative period 11.20-12.10pm JOHN CHITTY Common diseases of guinea pigs 12.25-1.15pm JO HARRIS Cardiology update – 1 LUNCH 2.20-3.10pm GWEN COVEY-CRUMP Pain perception in animals: why does it still hurt when everything looks normal? 3.35-4.25pm ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Surgical management of peritonitis 4.40-5.30pm JOHN CHITTY Imaging the rabbit skull: what can I do with x-rays and ultrasound – and when is CT better?	9-9.50am NICOLA LAKEMAN Grain-free foods: something to recommend or avoid? 10.05-10.55am JOHN CHITTY Making the practice rabbit-friendly 11.20-12.10pm GWEN COVEY-CRUMP Becoming a pain champion: learn to lead a pain clinic and advocate for effective pain management LUNCH 1.15-2.05pm ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Preparing for ex lap 2.20-3.10pm JOHN CHITTY Stress-free small mammal anaesthesia means safer anaesthesia: how to make a bad day better 3.35-4.25pm HOLLY POWELL-THOMAS WITH GWEN COVEY-CRUMP Becoming an Anaesthesia Ninja: preparing for the unexpected and maximising your team's potential 4.40-5.30pm NICOLA LAKEMAN Obesity clinics: just about food?	WOUND MANAGEMENT The Bandaging Angels, led by Shelly Jefferies, will be running the following sessions (each limited to 10 participants): 9am and 1.15pm – Suturing basics: looking at suture types, patterns, plus practical session 10.05am and 2.20pm – How do you do? Looking at surgical site infections, hand hygiene, skin prep, with practical gloving and UV hand hygiene session 11.20am and 3.25pm – Twelve factors of healing delay: looking at different delay healing factors and ability to practice culture swabs, FNAs and tie-over dressings 11.20am ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Hands-on with drains, catheters and feeding tubes 1.15pm DAVID WILLIAMS What's new in ophthalmology? Exhibition open from 8.30am to 6.30pm, with "happy hour" from 5.30pm. Morning refreshment break from 10.55 to 11.20am and afternoon break at 3.10 until 3.35pm.

Day 2: 24th September

VETERINARY	NURSING	WORKSHOPS
9-9.50am STEPH HOVEY Tackling the tricky dermatology case – 1 10-05-10.55am KEVIN PARSONS Hip, Hip, Hooray! Tackling hip pain in dogs – one step at a time 11.20-12.10pm DAVID WILLIAMS Ophthalmic emergencies – 2: blepharitis, blindness, and yet more 12.25-1.15pm STEPH HOVEY Tackling the tricky dermatology case – 2 LUNCH 2.20-3.10pm JO HARRIS Cardiology update – 2 3.35-4.25pm KEVIN PARSONS Pelvic fractures: from assessment to recovery – navigating conservative and surgical solutions 4.40-5.30pm ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Canine urethral obstruction NB. Programme subject to change	9-9.50am DAVID WILLIAMS Ocular surgery on a budget! 10.05-10.55am TOM SMITH Emergency and intensive nursing care – 1 11.20-12.10pm NICOLA LAKEMAN Peri-anaesthesia nutrition recommendations LUNCH 1.15-2.05pm TOM SMITH Emergency and intensive nursing care – 2 2.20-3.10pm STEPH HOVEY Skin diseases: the nurses' role 3.35-4.25pm CHARLOTTE GLOVER Nursing the cardiac patient 4.40-5.30pm TOM SMITH Emergency and intensive nursing care – 3 Exhibition open from 8.30am-3.45pm. The morning refreshment break will be from 10.55 to 11.20am and the afternoon break from 3.10 to 3.35pm.	WOUND MANAGEMENT The Bandaging Angels, led by Shelly Jefferies, will be running the following sessions (each limited to 10 participants): 9am – Suturing basics: looking at suture types, patterns, plus practical session 10.05am – How do you do? Looking at surgical site infections, hand hygiene, skin prep, with practical gloving and UV hand hygiene session 11.20am – Twelve factors of healing delay: looking at different delay healing factors and ability to practice culture swabs, FNAs and tie-over dressings ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Hands-on with drains, catheters and feeding tubes 11.20am (one hour) and 2.20pm (three hours) MATTHEW OXFORD Practical dentistry workshops: radiography in the morning; extraction techniques in the afternoon

Latest info at www.vetcpdcongress.co.uk