

SANDY PARK, EXETER

25th-26th September

Outline programme for Day One

The exhibition will be open from 8.30am until 6.30pm, with "happy hour" from 5.30. Morning refreshment break will be from 10.55 to 11.20am and the afternoon break at 3.10 until 3.35pm.

VETERINARY	NURSING	WORKSHOPS
9-9.50am DAVID WILLIAMS Why won't this ulcer heal? 10-05-10.55am JO MURRELL Why pain matters 11.20-12.10pm MOLLY VARGA Medicine update - 1: Diagnosis and treatment of renal disease in rabbits and rodents 12.25-1.15pm JO HARRIS Cardiology - 1 LUNCH 2.20-3.10pm SARAH HEATH Considering the emotional impact of dermatological disease 3.35-4.25pm ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Biliary mucocoele: a surgeon's perspective 4.40-5.30pm JO MURRELL Pharmacotherapies for chronic pain	9-9.50am NICOLA LAKEMAN What's new? Feline diabetes clinics 10.05-10.55am ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Surgical nursing for brachycephalic airway surgery 11.20-12.10pm DAVID WILLIAMS Nursing care after eye surgery LUNCH 1.15-2.05pm JO MURRELL How to measure chronic pain in cats and dogs 2.20-3.10pm MOLLY VARGA Rabbit and rodent anaesthetic emergencies: How to recognise when a patient is struggling and what to do about it 3.25-4.25pm NICOLA LAKEMAN Chronic condition clinics 4.40-5.30pm SARAH HEATH What is comprehensive healthcare? Understanding the health triad and its impact on behaviour	WOUND MANAGEMENT The Bandaging Angels, led by Shelly Jefferies will be running the following workshops: 9am and 1.15pm - Practical solutions to common problems 10.05am and 2.20pm - Suturing, covering theory and practice 11.20am and 3.25pm - Case studies, looking at some common and shocking wounds and how they should be treated 12.25pm ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Dry lab for veterinary surgeons on electrosurgery application. 1.25pm DAVID WILLIAMS What should be on your ophthalmic pharmacy shelf.  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Society of Practising Veterinary Surgeons is running a two-day leadership/management programme aimed at both practice managers and aspiring managers, with a top line-up of speakers to be announced shortly. This must be booked separately.</li> <li>• The Vets in Mind Alliance is organising two-days of interactive sessions, led by Dr Donna Rodil and others, on mental health issues affecting the veterinary community and how to cope with them.</li> </ul>

SANDY PARK, EXETER

25th-26th September

Outline programme for Day Two

The exhibition will be open from 8.30am until 3.45pm. The morning refreshment break will be from 10.55 to 11.20am and the afternoon break at 3.10 until 3.35pm.

VETERINARY	NURSING	WORKSHOPS
9-9.50am MATTHEW OXFORD Local anaesthesia for dentistry and oral surgery 10-05-10.55am MOLLY VARGA Medicine update - 2: What's new in rabbit and rodent analgesia: dealing effectively with acute and chronic pain 11.20-12.10pm DAVID WILLIAMS How can I get this eye comfortable again 12.25-1.15pm MATTHEW OXFORD Fractured teeth: What are my options? An introduction to endodontics LUNCH 2.20-3.10pm JO HARRIS Cardiology - 2 3.35-4.25pm SARAH HEATH Cognitive dysfunction - highlighting the need for a comprehensive healthcare approach to the elderly canine 4.40-5.30pm ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Total ear canal ablation: what do I need to know?	9-9.50am NICOLA LAKEMAN Nutrition for senior - and renal - cats 10.05-10.55am SARAH HEATH What is an emotionally healthy puppy and how can their development be supported 11.20-12.10pm MATTHEW OXFORD All you could ever want to know about dental nursing in 45 minutes LUNCH 1.15-2.05pm SAM BELL Lavage and debridement techniques 2.20-3.10pm MOLLY VARGA Preventive health care in rabbits and rodents: dietary advice, vaccinations, routine parasite treatments - how nurse-led clinics can support our non-traditional companion animals 3.25-4.25pm CHARLOTTE GLOVER Nursing the cardiac patient 4.40-5.30pm SAM BELL Drain management and wound soaker catheters	WOUND MANAGEMENT The Bandaging Angels, led by Shelly Jefferies will be running the following workshops: 9am and 1.15pm - Practical solutions to common problems 10.05am and 2.20pm - Suturing, covering theory and practice 11.20am and 3.25pm - Case studies, looking at some common and shocking wounds and how they should be treated 11.20am ALASDAIR HOTSTON MOORE Dry lab for veterinary nurses on suturing and skin stapling. 2.30pm MATTHEW OXFORD A practical workshop on dentistry techniques during the afternoon.  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Society of Practising Veterinary Surgeons is running a two-day leadership/management programme aimed at both practice managers and aspiring managers, with a top line-up of speakers to be announced shortly. This must be booked separately.</li> <li>• The Vets in Mind Alliance is organising two-days of interactive sessions, led by Dr Donna Rodil and others, on mental health issues affecting the veterinary community and how to cope with them.</li> </ul>   